Annual Celebrate Success Dinner Recognizes President's Award and Division Employees of the Year

Nearly 350 employees and guests attended the fourth annual Celebrate Success dinner and awards show on February 10, 2008, at the Doubletree Hotel in Bakersfield. The semi-formal annual event recognizes the people, events and happenings that make Hall Ambulance a success.

Over eighty awards were presented during the course of the evening, recognizing the accomplishments and achievements of employees from every division. The paramedic and EMT of the year recipients have the distinction of being forwarded as the Company's nominees for the annual Kern County EMS personnel of the year awards. The following employees were recognized as the employee of the year for their respective division:

Hall Ambulance Service, Inc. Employees of the Year

Division	Employee	Award
Hall Air Ambulance	Chris Leone, Jeanette Green, Shawn Perryman, Chris Beucher	Hall Air Employees of the Year

The evening culminated with Harvey L. Hall, founder and president of Hall Ambulance Service, Inc. presenting the prestigious President's Award to Paramedic Heather Taylor. The President's Award is determined through a mathematical assessment of compliments and positive quality surveys. Taylor, a 13-year employee said she was overwhelmed and shocked by the announcement. "What an incredible experience to win an award that is decided by the patients in reflection of the care that I provided to them," she said.
